

SBCC Women in Leadership Certificate

Achieve your next level of effectiveness, fulfillment, and impact as a leader

The SBCC Women in Leadership Certificate (Level 1) online program is a unique opportunity for early career professionals to develop essential leadership practices and skills for career advancement. This course provides an opportunity for collaboration with other women through a cohort model, in addition to one-on-one coaching. The program is based on an educational model of applied, experiential learning of self-development and leadership skill building.

How it works

In this 5-week online program, women will have an opportunity to understand and strategize with their “strengths” as women leaders. Women will develop a “Leadership Plan” to champion their leadership in the community or workplace.

What you will learn

Special focus areas will include:

- Skills for leading in a diverse workspace
- Appreciation of feminism and the evolution of women leaders
- Cutting-edge leadership models
- Unique challenges and opportunities faced by diverse women attempting a work/life balance
- Develop strengths-based approach to leadership
- Develop skills in public speaking, negotiation, and branding your leadership style.
